Men become outstanding by their levels of understanding. The power of His resurrection is the highest realm of power, and it is accessible by knowledge. Philippians 3:10 says: That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death.

According to Ephesians 1:18-23, this power is not just the exclusive preserve of the Apostles, Evangelists, Pastors and Teachers alone; it is available to everyone that believes. It re-positions believers. When you encounter this power as a believer, you are supernaturally re-positioned. He sets you far above where you used to live.

You are re-positioned far above all situations and circumstances of life. It re-positions you far above all principalities, powers, dominion, etc. No wonder, Paul said, "That I may know Him because there is power in His resurrection that is not available somewhere else" (Philippians 3:10).

The resurrection power is the fullness of His power. Resurrection means the opening of a new chapter. His resurrection destroys the veil that covers our hearts so that our spiritual understanding can blossom. When that happens, everything around us blossoms.

What does that offer us?

It makes us men and women of impact. ... But the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits (Daniel 11:32).

Deep revelation confers dominion. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand until I make thine enemies thy footstool. Psalm 110:1-3.

It offers access to strange places of glory and honor on the earth (2 Corinthians 3:13-18). Anyone operating this power never goes backward. He goes from glory to glory.

It grants us access to the deep things of God concerning our lives (John 16:13).
